Anne Frank and Me answers this question with a lot of heart. I thought it was wonderful and I'm an adult who was given this book by another adult, a friend who loves history as much as I do. Even though I'm old enough to be Nicole's mother, I found her character easy to relate to and her journey is something that will stay with me for a long time.

Anne Frank and Me is the first drama of the season at the Pearl Theater. The show runs September 27 – October 13, 2013. The story centers on Nicole Burns, a modern teen who doubts the truth and cares even less about the Holocaust, but ultimately comes face-to-face with its hell, and—in an extraordinary sequence—meets Anne Frank on a cattle car to Auschwitz.

"Anne Frank and Me," was based on the novel by Cherie Bennett and Jeff Gottesfeld. In this stage adaption, which apparently diverges somewhat from the novel, the protagonist is a typical 15-year-old girl named Nicole living in the US in 2011. Her affluent parents, if not actually meeting the formal definition of Holocaust deniers, certainly convey the message that the death toll of the ...
