Creat. Cut. Paste. (C.C.P.) represents a new emerging breed of designers who know creativity well, but their client's requirements better. Responsiveness and promptness are two parameters that set C.C.P.
apart from other design studios. Cut, copy and paste is generally referred for anything that consumes less time and efforts.

Cut, Paste, Create is a visual journal where the reader is encouraged to fill the pages with design ideas using collage and to explore and reflect on their own creative concepts and personal taste. Whilst some pages seek a more personal engagement, for example relating to moods or feelings, others simply provide a space to design a range of coats for your dog or create a and Paste are related commands that offer an interprocess communication technique for transferring data through a computer's user interface. The Cut command removes the selected data from its original position, while the Copy command creates a duplicate; in both cases the selected data is kept in temporary storage. The data from the clipboard is later inserted wherever a Paste command is issued. The data remains available ...
